DAVID FREESE: 2011 WORLD SERIES MVP
A LOOK AT ALL FREESE’S SUCCESSFUL HITS IN 2011 ON A 3-2 COUNT

Experts debate whether clutch hitters exist statistically. Decide for yourself. Bloomberg Sports can show all the hits and video for any split. In 2011 Freese hit 25 pitches into play on a 3-2 count. 14 were out. Here are the other 11 and two other significant plays.

IS DAVID FREESE A CLUTCH HITTER?

Strike Zone

Pitches faced by Freese

- Full season all pitches: 1710
- In Play: 303
- Percent: 18%
- Regular season 3-2 pitches: 82
- 20
- 24%
- Post season 3-2 pitches: 17
- 5
- 29%

Freese hit more frequently under a full count, and even more post-season full-count.

Hit Trajectory

Pitch and Hit Timeline

1. Apr 8. Tie game 0-0, to right field. From Jonathan Sanchez doubles off a fastball 2nd inning. Freese.
4. May 1. Freese hit in left wrist off a fastball from Francisco Rodriguez.
5. Aug 1. Milwaukee leads 5-2, 6th inning. Freese singles off a fastball from Scott Linebrink.
6. Aug 9. Freese hit more frequently under a full count, and even more post-season full-count.
7. Sep 2. Freese gets a solo home run off a splitter.
9. Oct 16. Game 7 of World Series. Bottom of the 9th. Freese gets a walk of hitters off a fastball from Mark Lowe sending the Series to game 7. Freese hits it in the air to center… and we will see you tomorrow night.
10. Oct 27. Winning run. Freese gets a walk of hitter off a fastball from Mark Lowe sending the Series to game 7. Freese hits it in the air to center… and we will see you tomorrow night.

Davon Freeze: Totals

- HITS IN 2011 ON A 3-2 COUNT
- 2011 WORLD SERIES MVP
- 25 Out of 3-2 Count
- 11 Home Runs
- 5 Postseason Home Runs
- 9 this year and the season is not over yet.
- 7 in the World Series

Poster designed by Tobias Fritsch

© 2001 Bloomberg Sports LLC and Uncharted Software Inc.